Overview

Chelsea is a member of the Firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution group, Employment and Labor group, and the White Collar and Government Investigations group.

Prior to joining Dentons Bingham Greenebaum, Chelsea served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Magistrate Judge Doris L. Pryor in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana. Before her clerkship, Chelsea began her legal career as a Deputy Public Defender in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Chelsea earned her J.D. from the University of Kentucky College of Law, where she served on the Kentucky Law Journal Editorial Board and Kentucky Moot Court Board.

Experience

During her four years as a Public Defender, Chelsea gained significant litigation experience independently managing a high-volume caseload ranging from misdemeanor to major felony cases. She represented clients from the initial hearing phase through trial verdict or sentencing and tried thirty-five cases to bench or jury trial verdict. She prepared and argued pre-trial motions to dismiss, motions to suppress, and conducted depositions of key prosecution witnesses.
